

June 15, 2020

Dear Parent/Guardian and Care Coordinators,

Re: Family Education & Training Series – Revised June 2020 for Teleconferencing

The Family Education & Training Series (FET) 2020 is for families of children with developmental disabilities. These programs are provided through funding of the Home and Community Based Waiver schedule.

Effective June 2020: These trainings are now available through virtual communication, as in-person training is not being offered at this time (locations are still listed should this change). The current list of programs are available and additional one-on-one sessions may also be scheduled. Please note, that the trainings will be arranged based on needs of the family/caregiver needs, as well as the ability of the instructors to provide the training based on their own schedules. The FET Coordinator will work with each family to arrange the best possible educational/informational experience during these unprecedented times. Currently, this virtual communication meeting is an option. That may change at any time and we will communicate with you accordingly.

As defined by the Office for People with Developmental Disabilities (OPWDD), Family Education & Training may be provided to families of people up to 18 year's old who are enrolled in the Home and Community Based Waiver Program. The purpose of FET is to enhance the decision-making capacity of the family unit, provide orientation regarding the nature and impact of developmental disabilities upon the person and their family, and inform them about service alternatives. Additionally, FET will assist the family unit in understanding and nurturing their child with a developmental disability.

For families who are enrolled in the Home and Community Based Waiver and who have FET listed as a service, FET is funded through OPWDD and will provide up to 2 sessions per year. Each family is expected to attend at least one session per calendar year to remain enrolled in the Home and Community Based Waiver. If this is the only Waiver service received, it is imperative that you attend at least one session per year in order to maintain Medicaid funding. These classes must be chosen from the enclosed list. People Inc. cannot give credit for classes taken through other agencies.

Wondering how to register? Fill out the form attached at the end of this packet (page 8) and mail it in to: FET Coordinator, 3332 Walden Avenue - Suite 100, Depew, NY 14043, or by email to: FET@people-inc.org.

If you need more information, contact your Care Coordinator or FET by phone at 716.880.3751 or by email at FET@people-inc.org.

Sincerely,

Linda Rinaldo, Admission Supervisor

Self-Care for the Caregiver

Presented by Megan Logan, Senior Employment Supervisor

Caregiving can be physically, emotionally and spiritually exhausting. Whether you are in the profession of caregiving or taking care of a loved one, it is important to remember to practice self-care. For family members, caregiving can carry other stressors such as: financial strain, family conflict, and social withdrawal. Over time, caregiver stress can lead to burnout. Burnout can be manifested as irritability, fatigue, problems with sleep, weight gain, feelings of helplessness or hopelessness, and social isolation. This training is offered to parents and caregivers to develop healthy coping skills and an active self-care plan.

This class is offered by appointment only

FET Location: TBD

Building Self-Esteem in My Child

Presented by Emily Sheehan, Behavior Intervention Specialist and Licensed Mental Health Counselor

The way we feel about ourselves has a huge impact on how we think and act. Building someone's confidence and self-esteem can provide them with positive reinforcement that may last a lifetime! In this class concepts of self-esteem and confidence will be further explored. Additional topics and handouts will be provided covering concepts of irrational and misleading thoughts, conversation and social skills, giving and receiving respect and gaining attention in positive ways. Participants will leave with an increased knowledge on these topics as well as a "workbook" of information to take home to their child so they can begin building and improving their own self-esteem!

This class is offered by appointment only

FET Location: TBD

Educational Advocacy

Presented by Elizabeth Assad-Penner, Educational Advocates

The Educational Advocate will define the role & process of the Committee for Special Education (CSE), implementation of Individual Education Plans (IEP), assessments, and the parent's role as an advocate. Special concerns may also be addressed.

This class is offered by appointment only.

FET Location: TBD

My Child and Prader-Willi Syndrome

Presented by Gabrielle Landis, Behavioral Intervention Specialist

Prader-Willi Syndrome or (PWS) is a rare disorder present at birth that results in a number of physical, mental and behavioral problems. This class will discuss a brief overview of PWS, including behavioral methods to support the person diagnosed with Prader-Willi Syndrome. The trainer will work with your family to identify specific concerns regarding your child and develop individualized supports. Sessions will be held at a convenient time and location that will be arranged with the presenter.

This class is offered by appointment only.

FET Location: TBD

A Guided Process to Toileting Training

Presented by Behavior Intervention Specialist

In an effort to help parents with what can be seen as an overwhelming challenge, we have created a guided process to toileting training. We begin the process by observing the child and having the families complete a toileting questionnaire on the child's present level of toileting independence. Preparation of toilet training is a major key to success. Before toilet training begins, we will create together a charting system for the child's current toileting schedule and fluid intake. Families will then be provided with a personalized toileting guide that will walk them through the toileting process for their child.

This class is offered by appointment only

FET Location: TBD

Understanding Positive Reinforcement

Presented by Amber Sarubbi, Behavior Intervention Specialist-Assessment

This training discusses how to focus on what your child is doing right rather than concentrating on what your child is doing wrong. We discuss strategies to help increase the likelihood that the behaviors you want to continue to see will be repeated. Positive strategies to help support your child through enthusiasm, labeled praise and encouragement and rewards systems are discussed.

This class is offered by appointment only.

FET Location: TBD

Overview of Dietary Choices

Presented by Melissa Pukalo, Dietetic Technician

The objective of this training is to create an informed approach to creatively feeding your child with a developmental disability. All parents, not just those of children with special needs, can be familiar with the stress and confusion associated with nourishing their child. Due to the strain this situation can create, parents are often tempted to give in to the demands of their child and poor eating habits are established. These issues may be further exacerbated when a child has difficulties with sensory processing, tactile defensiveness, allergies, intolerances, and other dietary restrictions. This training will prepare you with a baseline of knowledge to navigate all of your options, some creative approaches to trying new things, and recipes that you may like to try with your own child.

This class is offered by appointment only

FET Location: 3332 Walden Avenue - Suite 100, Depew NY 14043

Making a Safety Plan

Presented by Carol Miller, Residential Director

FET Location: TBD

Traveling for medical appointments

Presented by Carol Miller, Residential Director

Learn about getting a second opinion, what to bring, lodging options, reimbursement programs, insurance preauthorization's, and navigating the MAS process.

This class is offered by appointment only.

FET Location: TBD

An Overview of Care Coordination/Care Management

Presented by Maria McMorrow, Care Coordination Supervisor

The Care Coordinator (CC) plays a very important role in accessing valuable services. This session will help you develop skills to form a working relationship with your CC with the goal of making your monthly meeting productive and meaningful. You will learn more about available services, the process for obtaining these services, and getting the most from the services your child will be receiving.

This class is offered by appointment only.
