

Museum of disABILITY History Dialogues on disABILITY Speaker Series presents

A Conversation about Epilepsy

with Renay Moran, MEd

Information Services Coordinator, Epilepsy Association of Western New York

FREE EVENT

Epilepsy Association of Western New York

Tuesday, August 21, 2018
10 to 11 a.m.

Museum of disABILITY History
3826 Main Street, Buffalo

One in ten Americans has a seizure during their lifetime.

*Are YOU prepared?
Is YOUR STAFF prepared?*

Presentation to include:

- Recognizing seizure types
- Seizure first aid
- Hidden signs of seizures
- Myths and facts about epilepsy
- Treatment and medications
- Psychosocial aspects
- Causes of epilepsy
- Services provided by Epilepsy Association of Western New York

The presentation is ideal for people with epilepsy and their family, teachers and educational staff, nurses, students, medical and human services agencies and child care providers.

Registration encouraged. To RSVP or for more information, email David Mack-Hardiman at dmack@people-inc.org or call 716.629.3626.

Museum of disABILITY History
3826 Main Street, Buffalo, NY 14226
museumofdisability.org • 716.629.3626
 museumofdisability