

Taking Pride in Compliance is her Motto...

Susan Mancuso has been elected to serve as president of the Financial Manager's Association of New York's Corporate Board and Central Group. The Financial Manager's Association of New York promotes communication among financial professionals of not for profit rehabilitation agencies and serves as a resource in providing networking opportunities and educational seminars specific to disability service provider agencies.

Susan has worked for People Inc. for 13 years in Accounting; she is currently the Assistant Controller, handling budgets specializing in HUD and grant funding compliance.

She has been married to husband John for 16 years and they have two great children named Louisa and Johnny. Susan stated, "the appointment is an opportunity for me to be an energizing force in making dreams come true for individuals and families receiving services at People Inc., and networking with other professionals keeps me abreast of the new trends as well as changes in the field. To be at an open house and hear from a tenant that now calls one of our projects home is what I really love."
