

“Celebrating Differences”

with Ivan the Invacar and Kids on the Block of WNY

Hosted by Museum of disABILITY History, Monkey See, Monkey Do... Children's Bookstore, People Inc., and Kids on the Block of WNY.

Saturday,
June 29, 2013

10 a.m.-11 a.m.

Monkey See, Monkey Do...
Children's Bookstore
9060 Main Street
Clarence, NY 14031
(Two miles east of Transit Road)

NEW KIDS BOOKS
CELEBRATE DIFFERENCES

Join us for book readings of Ivan the Invacar book series and “disABILITY Awareness” Skits by Kids on the Block of WNY puppeteers and Museum of disABILITY History volunteers!
The books and skits are geared towards children ages 5 and up.

Through the Museum of disABILITY History and People Inc., three new books to help children celebrate differences are now available! The Ivan the Invacar book series is brightly illustrated to introduce children to disabilities and how to be more independent with adaptive equipment. The books also explore Ivan's “superhero powers” and adventures!

Ivan the Invacar Helps Big Dog
Ivan the Invacar Helps Little Cat
Ivan and the Cave

Take-home Ivan the Invacar coloring sheets!

Each 10-minute Kids on the Block skit will encourage all kids to celebrate their differences!

“Secret Code” • “Sorting Socks” • “New Friends”

All three books will be sold at the store.

Thank you to Monkey See, Monkey Do for giving back 20 percent of all sales to the Museum of disABILITY History from everything that is sold in the store during the day of the event!

To RSVP or for more information, call 716.629.3608.

