

BOOK TOUR KICK-OFF EVENT

and celebration of the release of Stephen Nawotniak's children's book

Family-friendly event includes a reading, fun activities for children and refreshments.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 8, 2015

11:00 am to 2:00 pm

Museum of disABILITY History

3826 Main Street, Buffalo NY 14226

RSVP by August 7, 2015 to (716) 629-3626.

Mubu the Morph is Clarence, NY, resident Stephen Nawotniak's first children's book and offers lessons on self-image, self-confidence and character development. Suitable for children grades K to 3 and the people who love them, Mubu the Morph is packaged with a FREE coloring book and bookmark making it a great gift and a beneficial tool for parents and teachers interested in sharing important lessons about individuality.

Buffalo, NY: People Ink Press (2015). This book is now available and retails for $9.95 each. It will be available at the Museum of disABILITY History's store and online, store.museumofdisability.org and mubuthemorph.com.