

THE MUSEUM OF disABILITY HISTORY
FILM AND SPEAKER SERIES

Encore Presentation of SIX GUYS, 6,000 MILES

A documentary about a cross-country road trip that changed them for a lifetime

FRIDAY, AUGUST 26, 2016

6 PM

MUSEUM OF disABILITY HISTORY
3826 MAIN STREET, BUFFALO

A one-of-a-kind cross-country trip by four program participants of People Inc.'s Guys Group, a social group for young men with developmental disabilities, and two life quality coaches, is captured on film. In June 2015, they embarked on a journey from Buffalo, New York to the west coast, traveling 6,000 miles for an experiential learning trip. 75 minutes, no rating

Includes the song Not so Different, featuring Johnny Rzeznik of the Goo Goo Dolls

MEET THE CAST!

Join the trip participants, Jon Caldwell, Nick Feeterman, Aaron Hanson and Eric Johnson, along with their two life quality coaches, Nick Cacciotti and Chris Zienski, as they share stories from their travels and answer your questions about their experiences.

716.629.3626 disabilityfilmfest.org

Museumofdisability CrossingBordersWNY

Jon

Nick F.

Aaron

Eric

Nick C.

Chris

Sponsored by:

Tickets: $5

Tickets available in advance at the Museum of disABILITY History. To reserve tickets, contact Doug Farley at dfarley@people-inc.org or call 716.629.3626; there will be a will call at the event. Tickets will be for sale if available on the day of the event at The Museum.

Museum of disABILITY History 3826 Main St, Buffalo NY museumofdisability.org

Museum of disABILITY History
A PROJECT OF PEOPLE INC.