

An Evening with "DitzAbled Princess"

Jewel Kats

Find out how Jewel Kats made her disability her fortune

Friday, June 21, 2013
7 p.m.-9 p.m.

Museum of disABILITY History
3826 Main Street
Buffalo, NY 14226

For Jewel, her physical disability doesn't dampen her spirits. Rather, it enhances them.

- Q&A Interview and adult candid conversation.
- Open forum for your questions to get answered.
- Find out why Jewel wrote her revolutionary comic-diary, "DitzAbled Princess: A Comical Diary Inspired by Real Life."
- Book Sales and Signing.
- Basket raffle ticket with paid admission ticket.
- Refreshments.

About Jewel:

Jewel Kats, 34, is an award-winning writer. She is a confident woman who is proud to say that she has made her disAbility her fortune! Everything about Jewel is beautiful, including her hot pink crutches. Nothing has stopped her from fulfilling her dreams and she is sharing her story with the world! Jewel has authored seven books for Loving Healing Press including her Mom's Choice Award winners: "Cinderella's Magical Wheelchair" and "The Princess and the Ruby: An Autism Fairy Tale." She is also the author of a web-based comic strip titled "DitzAbled Princess," based on her personal life, which currently has over 250,000 followers!

- Author of seven books for Loving Healing Press including her Mom's Choice Award winners:
 - » Cinderella's Magical Wheelchair.
 - » The Princess and the Ruby: An Autism Fairy Tale.

- Writer and real-life character behind "DitzAbled Princess" web comic strip.
- Nominee for the Canadian Disability Hall of Fame.
- Former intern for Entertainment Tonight Canada.
- Former teen-advice columnist.
- Filmed in a documentary for the Oprah Winfrey Network (Canada) Network.

To RSVP or for more information, call 716.629.3623.

Admission - Adults: $5.00 • Seniors, Students with ID, Human Service Employees: $2.50
Event fee includes admission to the Museum of disABILITY History.