

Making dreams come true with children's book author Jewel Kats

Your "Crowning" Achievement!

Saturday, June 22, 2013

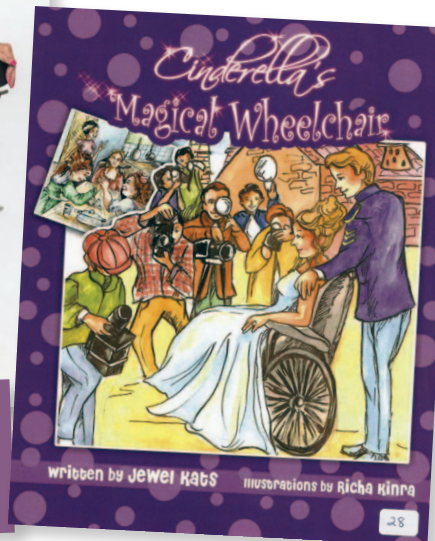

1 p.m.-3 p.m.

Museum of disABILITY History

3826 Main Street, Buffalo, NY 14226

Community event geared towards families with children ages five and up.

- Meet Jewel Kats as she reads her award-winning children's fairy tale "Cinderella's Magical Wheelchair"
- Book sales and signing
- "Make-your-own" crown or tiara craft activity
- Popcorn and healthy snacks!

About Jewel:

Jewel Kats, 34, is an award-winning writer. She is a confident woman who is proud to say that she has made her disAbility her fortune! Everything about Jewel is beautiful, including her hot pink crutches. Nothing has stopped her from fulfilling her dreams and she is sharing her story with the world! Jewel has authored seven books for Loving Healing Press including her Mom's Choice Award winners: "Cinderella's Magical Wheelchair" and "The Princess and the Ruby: An Autism Fairy Tale."

About the Book:

"Cinderella's Magical Wheelchair: An Empowering Fairy Tale"

In a Kingdom far, far away lives Cinderella. As expected, she slaves away for her cranky sisters and step-mother. She would dearly love to attend the Royal costume ball and meet the Prince, but her family is totally dead set against it. In fact, they have gone so far as to trash her wheelchair! An unexpected magical endowment to her wheelchair begins a truly enchanted evening and a dance with the Prince. Can true love be far behind?

To RSVP or for more information, call 716.629.3623.

Event Fee - Adults: $5.00 • Seniors, Students with ID, Human Service Employees: $2.50
Children 6-17: $2.00 • Family Package: $13 for 2 adults and 2 kids over age 5.
Event fee includes admission to the Museum of disABILITY History.